Contre Toi

Een film van Lola Doillon

Frankrijk · 85 min · 2010 · drama

Chirurg Anna Cooper is in de veertig, ongehuwd en heeft geen kinderen. Als ze onverwachts ontvoerd wordt door een jonge man die haar verantwoordelijk houdt voor de dood van zijn vrouw, mist niemand haar genoeg om actie te ondernemen. Dagenlang wordt ze vast gehouden in een kamer met alleen een bed en een emmer om haar behoeften op te doen. Wanneer ze erachter komt wie haar ontvoerder is, gaat ze met hem in gesprek. Op een bijzondere manier komen de twee eenzame mensen nader tot elkaar en ontstaat er een sterke band tussen Anna en juist diegene die haar de vrijheid ontnam.

ABOUT actress KRISTIN SCOTT THOMAS

Kristin A. Scott Thomas, is an English actress who has also acquired French nationality. She gained international recognition in the 1990s for her roles in 'Bitter Moon', 'Four Weddings and a Funeral' and 'The English Patient'.

Early life

Scott Thomas was born in Redruth, Cornwall (24 May 1960) Her mother, Deborah (née Hurlbatt), was raised in Hong Kong and Africa, and studied drama before marrying Scott Thomas's father. Her father, Lieutenant Commander Simon Scott Thomas, was a pilot for the Royal Navy Fleet Air Arm who died in a flying accident in 1964. Scott Thomas was raised Roman Catholic. She is the older sister of actress Serena Scott Thomas, the niece of Admiral Sir Richard Thomas (who was a Black Rod in the House of Lords), and a more distant great-grandniece of Capt. Robert Falcon Scott, the ill-fated explorer who lost the race to the South Pole.

Scott Thomas's childhood home was in Trent, Dorset, England. Her mother remarried, to another Royal Navy pilot, who also died in a flying accident six years after the death of her father. Scott Thomas was educated at private schools, Cheltenham Ladies' College and St. Antony's Leweston School for Girls, in Sherborne, Dorset and on leaving school, she moved to Hampstead, London, and worked in a department store. She then began training to be a drama teacher at the Central School of Speech and Drama. On being told she would never be a good enough actress, she left at the age of 19 to work as an au pair in Paris. Speaking French fluently, she studied acting at the École nationale supérieure des arts et techniques du théâtre (ENSATT) in Paris, and at age 25 on graduation, was cast opposite pop star Prince as Mary Sharon, a French heiress, in the 1986 film 'Under The Cherry Moon'. On his 2009 3-CD set LOtUSFLOW3R, the album MPLSoUND has a song titled "Better With Time", which Prince has said is an ode to Kristin.

Career

Scott Thomas is perhaps best-known for her central role as an unfaithful wife in 'The English Patient', one of the biggest screen hits of 1996. During the 1990s, she appeared opposite Hugh Grant in 'Bitter Moon' and the global box office success 'Four Weddings and a Funeral'.

In 2001 Kristin played the role of Lady Sylvia McCordle in the Academy Award-winning 'Gosford Park'.

She has also appeared on TV in the 2003 Book Clubbin' episode of Absolutely Fabulous, (she played a character called Plum Berkeley) and in the theatre.

She was awarded an OBE in the 2003 Queen's Birthday Honours list, and was also awarded the Légion d'honneur by the French government in 2005.

In early 2007, she played Arkadina in a London production of 'Chekhov's The Seagull', for which she won a Laurence Olivier Award for Best Actress on 9 March 2008. She reprised the role in New York in September 2008.

In 2006, she played the role of H el ene, in French, in 'Ne le dis   personne' (Tell No One), by French director Guillaume Canet. In 2008, Scott Thomas received many accolades for her performance in another French film, 'Il y a longtemps que je t'aime' (I've Loved You So Long), including BAFTA and Golden Globe nominations for Best Actress.

In 2008, Scott Thomas took on the little exposed role of Mary, Anne and George's mother Elizabeth Boleyn, Countess of Wiltshire and Ormond in 'The Other Boleyn Girl' movie.

In 2009, she played the role of a fashion magazine creator and editor in the film 'Confessions of a Shopaholic'.

She stars in the film adaption of Douglas Kennedy's novel 'The Woman in the Fifth', which is planned with an release in late 2011.

In 2011, Scott Thomas will star in the upcoming movie 'Bel Ami' as another love interest of George Duroy (played by Robert Pattinson).
